TRUE BLUE CITIZENS.

New York, November 12.—When the United War Work Campaign opened Monday of this week and the hundreds of thousands of solicitors in every city, town and rural district in the United States started to raise the millions needed for the fund, certain true-blue American citizens were able to sit back and watch the rest of the country dig down in its pockets, their quotas in some instances doubled, tripled and even quadrupled. These true-blue citizens are none other than Georgia and North Carolina Negroes.

With a friendly competition on in these states between colored and white people as to which will first subscribe their allotments, R. H. King, campaign director for the Southeastern Army Department, has wired Dr. John R. Mott, head of the Y. M. C. A., that in one county Negroes already have raised $2,550 in cash. Their share of the quota is $2,000. The white citizens in consequence have been given a new quota of their own.

A county in North Carolina furnishes the piece de resistance, however. Here the quota for the entire county was $14,000. The colored citizens imagined this sum was their share and hence have cheerfully and promptly raised the full sum that both races had been asked for.

UNSURPASSED OFFER

Send a post office money order for $1.00 and get a copy of "The Man—His Message" a book brim full of the life and work of the late Rev. I. Toliver, the noted evangelist of Texas. No man succeeded more as a spiritual revivalist, no man brought in more results from each revival than the late Rev. I. Toliver. Send $1.00 and get this book for your library. DAUGHTER LOOKING FOR HER MOTHER Mrs. Eliza Lewis, Box 78, Wabash, Ark., is trying to find her mother who was known as Mrs. Annie Vaughn before her marriage, but now goes by the name of Mrs. Annie Washington. She has asked the Nashville Globe to assist her. Any person knowing the whereabouts of Mrs. Annie Washington, is requested to write Mrs. Eliza Lewis, Box 78, Wabash, Ark.

NEW PORO COLLEGE BUILDING

Special to the Nashville Globe. St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 14.—Owing to the epidemic which prevailed in these parts last month the opening of the new $250,000 Poro College building was deferred, but from information given out by Prof. Aaron E. Malone and wife, the building will positively be opened Thanksgiving week, as the ban for Missouri has been lifted and every preparation is being made to have the affair one of the most notable ones that has occurred in this section.

Prominent speakers from various sections of the United States have been invited. Among those on program will be the Rev. Henry Allen Boyd, the Secretary of the Sunday School Congress of Nashville, Tenn. From what can be learned, this will be the most extensive manufacturing plant to have erected such a tremendous building for the housing of their machinery and output.

MT. ARIE BAPTIST CHURCH, SOUTH NASHVILLE, IN A GREAT REVIVAL

One of the greatest revivals in the history of the Mt. Arie Baptist Church is now on. Pastor Shortt is preaching great sermons which are said to be the plainest as well as spiritual instructive and inspiring ever heard in a revival in this church. He strongly preaches the gospel plan of salvation and he is holding his congregation spell bound. All are looking forward to Saturday evening reward service. "To any one who will show that any of the apostles of Jesus Christ obtained salvation by praying for it and preached such will be rewarded $5.00 in gold. Ethical proof shall only be accepted." It is said by some of Nashville's best Bible trained Christians that Dr. Shortt will have to give up the $5.00 in gold. Among the visiting ministers who attend service Sunday and spoke very highly of pastor Shortt's work was Rev. Dr. J. L. Callians, A. J. Harden, A. L. Parks and G. V. Fitchue. Mt. Arie members are with their pastor and are delighted over the way he is leading the force. One per week you shall bear from us. Rev. W. Frierson.

TABERNACLE BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday school opened promptly at 9:30 a. m. with the superintendent presiding. All the classes were well attended. The Sunday school is in splendid condition with new members enrolling each Sunday. Our pastor preached two able sermons Sunday. We have had great success in our revival service having eight conversions in the past week. Three have united with the church. The pastor is being ably assisted in his service by Rev. Tunstall, Jr., of Columbia, Tenn. All candidates for baptism are requested to meet at the church Sunday morning. We have accepted the cordial invitation of Rev. G. B. Taylor and members and will after service go to his church, where the pastor, Rev. H. M. Burns, will administer the baptismal rite to his candidates. Sunday, November 24th will mark the eighth anniversary of our present home which will be celebrated with our usual registration and home coming. The deacons are planning to make this event the greatest ever, and it is expected that each member will do their bit to help make their effort a great success. Watch for program in next week's issue of Globe.

MADAM RHODA OF RHODAO COLLEGE HOSTESS

A delightful reception in honor of Mrs. Laura Rice of Toledo, Ohio, Wednesday, November 6th, brought many compliments as the happy guests enjoyed the novel way of getting acquainted without being introduced. The name of each guest was carefully written on decorated paper and pinned on each one his own name which saved hesitating, thus being able to call each one by name. Many jolly remarks were made and beautiful soul refreshing music was rendered by Miss Mary Hargrave and Miss Alberta Jenkins. Among our guests were: Mrs. Priscilla Howard, Mrs. Abe Thompson, J. W. Glenn, Mary Hargrave, Maggie Rucker, Mrs. Willie Major, Minnie Abernathy, Curlee Johnson, Mr. Shepherd, Mr. Ridley, Cornelius Walker, Mr. Holland, Lula Howard, Lizzie Howard, Lula Thompson, Miss Nannie Webster, Mr. Ollie Epps, Stephen Collins, Mrs. Minnie Lee Abernathy, Mrs. D. B. Patton, Mr. Henry Henderson, Mose Lewis, Mr. Will Oliver, Mr. W. O. Nelson.

GORDON MEMORIAL M. E. CHURCH

Gordon Memorial M. E. Church Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. was largely attended. We have a splendid Sunday school and well attended. 11 a. m. preaching by Rev. J. W. Satterfield, his text, "What manner of man is this that even the wind and seas obey him." All enjoyed this wonderful sermon. At 7:30 p. m. preaching by Bro. Flacks, subject, "A sower going out to sow seeds." The revival started at Gordon Memorial Tuesday night, Nov. 12, 1918. We are asking the prayers of all Christians to pray for our future success. Rev. J. W. Satterfield, Pastor.

AN INTERESTING LETTER FROM ONE OF OUR BOYS

In Cool and Sandy France. October 14, 1918.

Miss L. D. Weatherford, My Dear Sister—I am very well at this present time. Hope you and the rest are the same. I hope you all received the photo of my quartette O. K. I have just written mother, have been trying to get chance to write you for some few days and tell you for the "American Home Dinner in France," which was given by Orderly Pvt. 1st Class Geo. Letton of Paris, Ky., in behalf of his many soldier friends and their separation of companies D. C. and B. from Company "A." As the four companies were together and the other three had to leave and go "Somewhere else in France."

The table was set September 27th in a battalion blacksmith shop, and looked very nice and quite homely with the good things on it to eat. We rested our hats on the anvil, our lights were of candles, ten candles were burning and we had sufficient light and at 7:30 p. m. the table was in full bloom and all present.

Those present were: Bugler, John Isom, an attendant of Middle University, Charlotte, N. C.; Bugler Shivers, Pisk University, Nashville, Tenn.; Pvt. 1st Class Maurice Weatherford, Pearl High School, Nashville, Tenn.; Orderly Edward Middleton, Georgetown High School, Georgetown, Ky.; Pvt. 1st Class Wm. Letton, Paris High School, Paris, Ky.; Cook John Wright, of Nashville, Tenn.; Pvt. 1st Class L. D. Payne, Germantown Public School, Germantown, Ky.; Orderly Roland F. Johnson, Louisville High School, Louisville, Ky.; Orderly Geo. E. Letton of Paris, Ky., an attendant of the Southern Christian Institute, Edwards, Miss.

The dinner was prepared by cook John Wright of Nashville, Tenn., and could not have been better. Every thing had such a homely season and flavor that we all just put our imaginations towards home and with plenty of jokes and songs we certainly enjoyed ourselves. The table was blessed by Orderly Geo. E. Letton of Paris, Ky., and the closing song was "My Old Kentucky Home," by Pvt. 1st class Maurice Weatherford. I am very glad to know that Orderly Geo. E. Letton had such a feeling for his soldier friends and am glad indeed also to say that he put quite a thinking feeling on the boys who were present by having the great and only opportunity of eating "An American Dinner in France." Well sister as my candles are burning low and I have said quite a few words, my time forbids me from saying any more, so I shall close, hoping you, mother and the rest of the family "A Merry Xmas."

I remain as ever your loving baby brother Bent.

Pvt. Maurice Weatherford.

WILBUR HARDISON IN FRANCE.

Messages were received this week from Sergt. Clarence Wilbur Hardison, who is now somewhere in France. Sergt. Hardison, it will be remembered, was employed as embalmer at Taylor & Company's establishment and was generally known throughout Nashville by most of the people as "Wilbur." He is with Company A, 68th Inf., and is writing to some Nashville friends, he stated he was in the hospital, but expected to be out real soon. By hard work he has been promoted from private to the rank of sergeant in his company.

EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING.

The meeting of the Executive Board of the Missionary Baptist State Convention, which will be held at the First Baptist Church of Columbia, November 27-29th, will be a great meeting for constructive work, as well as otherwise. The educational interests of the denomination will have the right of way. The mission work will claim the attention of both men on board and executive. The members and visitors to the meeting are requested to meet at the Union Station in time to leave on the eight o'clock morning train. Since our meeting was postponed and much time has been lost, we hope every member of the Board will be present.

J. L. HARDING.

SPECIAL EDITION

Since the end of the war seems so near and conditions must adjust themselves back into commercial channels, turning aside from entering war activities, the NASHVILLE GLOBE has decided that it will give to the working men who are seeking employment in the city, an idea of what Nashville really is and that will introduce to the manufacturers, wholesale and other commercial interest the real laboring man who is seeking employment and who, because of Nashville's geographical location and because of her educational facilities could be induced to remain in this section if everything else were equal. While the Nashville Globe has had several Christmas editions, running as high as thirty-two pages, this will be its first efforts on a special edition that will put capital and labor together showing each the interest of the other.

Copy for the special number must be in not later than MONDAY MORNING DEC. 2nd as the issue will positively appear on

FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 6th

The ten thousand readers of the Nashville Globe in Nashville are urged to watch for this edition. Those of course, who have not paid for the paper and who will no doubt be cut off by that time must not expect a copy unless it is bought from the newsboys on the streets. The notice has already been given to the delinquent subscribers that their paper will be discontinued, unless their subscription is paid immediately.

Readers of the Nashville Globe residing in the city who have friends in other places, who would like to see the Globe are requested to buy an extra copy and mail to them.
